Writing a Journal

- I went to Tokyo.
- I saw my uncle.
- He was in a hospital.
- I He broke his leg last week.
- I gave him a book.
- 6 He looked happy.

October 12, 2021

I went to Tokyo to see my uncle. He was in a hospital because he broke his leg last week. When I gave him a book, he looked happy. I was very glad to see that.

If I can go to Tokyo again next summer, I want to see a baseball game at Tokyo Dome because I am a big fan of the Giants. My uncle knows a lot about baseball, so I would like to visit Tokyo Dome with him.

Example

I went to Hokkaido to see my friend there. She moved to Hokkaido last year. I was really sad when I heard she had to leave this town. So this trip was a long-awaited one for me.

I visited her place and we talked a lot and lot and lot because we had so many things to tell each other during this past year. I was really happy to see her again.

She said she would like to come to my place next time. If that happens, we will talk all through the night. I can't wait!
